Gender Equity in Local Government – the 2018 checklist for Champions

Ensure gender equity remains a primary goal for your council and community Talk to community groups to see if there are women leaders who may wish to eventually stand for council Ask for information about child care practices in the municipality – are they good enough to support women's civic participation? Are council meetings and consultations held in venues and at times that suit working women and women looking after children? Are there some engagement activities your council could undertake in the community to develop a greater understanding of local governance? Visit diverse community groups to talk to them about their role in local governance? Visit diverse women leaders women leaders in your community and talk to them about the possibility of standing for election or supporting another woman to stand for election in 2020 Find out if your council has any information about barriers to participation in civic life by women from diverse backgrounds	GOAL	ACTIONS	IN PROGRESS	DONE community clubs adopt the Women's Charter Talk to community groups to see if there are women leaders who may wish to eventually stand for council Ask for information about child care practices in the municipality — are they good enough to support women's civic participation? Are council meetings and consultations held in venues and at times that suit working women and women looking after children? Are there some engagement activities your council could undertake in the community to develop a greater understanding of local governance? Visit diverse community groups to talk to them about their role in local governance leaders in your community and talk to them about the possibility of standing for election or supporting another woman to stand for election in 2020 Find out if your council has any information about barriers to participation in civic life by women	remains a primary goal	council about progress on gender equity there are women leaders who may wish to eventually stand for council Ask for information about child care practices in the municipality – are they good enough to support women's civic participation? Are council meetings and consultations held in venues and at times that suit working women and women looking after children? Are there some engagement activities your council could undertake in the community to develop a greater understanding of local governance? Visit diverse community groups to talk to them about their role in local governance leaders in your community and talk to them about the possibility of standing for election in 2020 Find out if your council has any information about barriers to participation in civic life by women	•	clubs adopt the Women's Charter care practices in the municipality – are they good enough to support women's civic participation? Are council meetings and consultations held in venues and at times that suit working women and women looking after children? Are there some engagement activities your council could undertake in the community to develop a greater understanding of local governance? Visit diverse community groups to talk to them about their role in local governance lidentify a few diverse women leaders in your community and talk to them about the possibility of standing for election or supporting another woman to stand for election in 2020 Find out if your council has any information about barriers to participation in civic life by women		there are women leaders who may
care practices in the municipality – are they good enough to support women's civic participation? Are council meetings and consultations held in venues and at times that suit working women and women looking after children? Are there some engagement activities your council could undertake in the community to develop a greater understanding of local governance? Visit diverse community groups to talk to them about their role in local governance lidentify a few diverse women leaders in your community and talk to them about the possibility of standing for election or supporting another woman to stand for election in 2020 Find out if your council has any information about barriers to participation in civic life by women		·
care practices in the municipality – are they good enough to support women's civic participation? Are council meetings and consultations held in venues and at times that suit working women and women looking after children? Are there some engagement activities your council could undertake in the community to develop a greater understanding of local governance? Visit diverse community groups to talk to them about their role in local governance lidentify a few diverse women leaders in your community and talk to them about the possibility of standing for election or supporting another woman to stand for election in 2020 Find out if your council has any information about barriers to participation in civic life by women
Can women participate easily in the civic life of your municipality? Are there some engagement activities your council could undertake in the community to develop a greater understanding of local governance? Visit diverse community groups to talk to them about their role in local governance What could improve the diversity of your elected council? Visit diverse community groups to talk to them about their role in local governance Identify a few diverse women leaders in your community and talk to them about the possibility of standing for election or supporting another woman to stand for election in 2020 Find out if your council has any information about barriers to participation in civic life by women	easily in the civic life of	care practices in the municipality – are they good enough to support activities your council could undertake in the community to develop a greater understanding of local governance? Visit diverse community groups to talk to them about their role in local governance Identify a few diverse women leaders in your community and talk to them about the possibility of standing for election or supporting another woman to stand for election in 2020 Find out if your council has any information about barriers to participation in civic life by women		consultations held in venues and at times that suit working women and Visit diverse community groups to talk to them about their role in local governance Identify a few diverse women leaders in your community and talk to them about the possibility of standing for election or supporting another woman to stand for election in 2020 Find out if your council has any information about barriers to participation in civic life by women		activities your council could undertake in the community to develop a greater understanding of
talk to them about their role in local governance What could improve the diversity of your leaders in your community and talk to them about the possibility of standing for election or supporting another woman to stand for election in 2020 Find out if your council has any information about barriers to participation in civic life by women		9
talk to them about their role in local governance What could improve the diversity of your leaders in your community and talk to them about the possibility of standing for election or supporting another woman to stand for election in 2020 Find out if your council has any information about barriers to participation in civic life by women the diversity of your elected council? leaders in your community and talk to them about the possibility of standing for election or supporting another woman to stand for election in 2020 Find out if your council has any information about barriers to participation in civic life by women		talk to them about their role in information about barriers to participation in civic life by women	the diversity of your	leaders in your community and talk to them about the possibility of standing for election or supporting another woman to stand for information about barriers to participation in civic life by women

Victorian Local Governance Association